Somers-Summers Clan Will Meet On Sunday At Altamahaw Church

1946

The sixth annual Somers-Summers reunion will be held beginning at 11 o'clock on Sunday morning at the Bethlehem Christian church at Altamahaw, with a picnic dinner being served on the ground shortly after noon and a concluding program starting at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, according to C. G. Somers, president of the clan.

Rev. D. B. Summers, pastor of the Zion Lutheran church at Hickory, will deliver the principal address at the morning service, with Dr. Ned F. Brannock of Elon College, speaking in the afternoon.

At the morning service, a piano prelude will be presented by Mrs. Mable Somers Ward, with the devotions being directed by J.D.F. Cobb. The welcome will be given by Clarence Moore, the response by Hubert Summers, and President C. G. Somers will, in turn, make a short talk. Special music will be furnished by the Bethlehem quartet.

An exhibit of hand paintings will be on display at 1 o'clock by Emma Somers.

Those taking part in the afternoon service include Mrs. Blanche Somers Jefferies, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Mozelle Sullivan Clark, historian, who will make reports, Richard J. Somers will sing two solos.

Election of officers will follow the afternoon program.

Other than the officers mentioned, James Ed. Summers serves as vice president.

Committees in charge of the reunion Sunday include the following: Program—Mrs. Ida Somers Ross, chairman; Hubert Summers, Ralph Somers, and Ted Summers. Entertainment —George Somers, chairman; Mrs. Luna Somers Moore, Mrs. Purnie Somers Wilkins, and Ernest Somers. Nominating—Charles Howerton, chairman; Mrs. Frances Somers Scott, and Floyd Fryar.

Several hundred members and friends of the families are expected to be in attendance, according to the president.
