SOMERS - SUMMERS REUNION

September 26, 2004

Today we are here to enjoy our sixty-fourth annual reunion. It has always been a day that I looked forward to each year. There are so many of our kin whom I do not know and I'm sure many of you feel the same. It is always nice to see or hear from ones who cannot be here for one reason or another. Every one is only a phone call away. Another year, please call each of your immediate family members and encourage them to attend this reunion. Don't stop with just family members, call the ones who are not your immediate family members and remind them that the reunion is getting closer. It is always on the fourth Sunday in September.

*****

We have a special reason for our program today. We have Roland Summers' niece Cindy Pottress and her band who are going to perform for us today in memory of a special person, Roland Lester Summers, who passed into eternity on May 3, 2004. Some of you may not have known. He was the son of Lester Summers and Barbara Ada Whitesell Summers. He always enjoyed planning the reunion and sometimes it turned out to be even a surprise to him. He worked diligently each year to give us an enjoyable program, until he just couldn't do it anymore. He was a dedicated president, a wonderful friend to all who knew him, always with a smile on his face no matter how bad he might have felt, warm kind words to his friends and family, always helped anyone who needed a helping hand, and was a brave fighter to the end. He gave his all. We have a lot to be thankful for as a faithful servant has passed from us.

*****

On June 27, 2004, another one of our faithful family members went to be with her Lord and Savior. Her name was Julia Vivian Moore Ross. She was the daughter of John Robert Vance Moore and Mary Frances Lana Somers Moore. Julia's mother, Luna Somers Moore, was the one who started this reunion at her home on Stoney Creek Church Road in 1941. Julia was ninety-four years old. She attended all the family reunions except one. She enjoyed coming to this event each year. She always reminded her family that the reunion was next Sunday. She said tell your children. She always liked for them to come and enjoy it as much as she did. She always had a smile for everyone who came and spoke with her. She has left a big void in our lives as no one else can, for you only have one mother. We miss her terribly. I know she will be missed here at this reunion and I hope she will not be forgotten.
