‘EXTREME THINGS’ : SEA SCOUTS RAISE BAR

A group of Boy Scouts plan to set sail as part of the county’s new Sea Scouting program this fall. Sea Scouting is a branch of the BSA’s Venturing program. The kids go out and do some extreme things the younger scouts cannot do. They get to do things like ziplining and mountain climbing. Sea Scouts has been around for 100 years and is available nationwide, but Alamance County’s Sea Scouts ship 1633 began in October 2012. Included in the scouts is JACOB WHITESELL.

SIGMA ALPHA PI NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

August 6, 2013

Dear Sheila,

Congratulations!!! The administration at Alamance Community College has selected you to join The National Society of Leadership and Success, SIGMA ALPHA PI. Sigma Alpha Pi is a leadership honor society fraternity available to a limited number of students on campus. Your candidacy for the Society is based on your leadership potential and is a nationally recognized achievement of honorable distinction.

The National Society of Leadership and Success is one of the largest college leadership honor societies in the United States with hundreds of chapters. Membership gives you lifetime access to benefits including over $150,000.00 annually in awards and scholarships, and leadership certification exclusive events on campus.

We commend you for earning this invitation. Your hard work and dedication to outstanding achievement provides you with this selective and distinguished opportunity. We look forward to welcoming you as a member.

Cordially,

John J. Evans, M.ED.

NATIONAL PHOTOGRAPHY COMPETITION

Two students were named finalists in the 33rd. Nikon high school and college photography contests. MADLINE BLAIR WILLIAMS is a junior at Burlington –Alamance College and was one of the 1,600 entrants in the annual competition open to high school and college students. She was prompted to enter the competition by her digital photography teacher at Alamance Community College, Ms. Joan Cecil. In an interview with the Alamance News, Ms. Cecil highlighted Madeline as a budding photographer with aspirations to continue into a career in photography. Madeline moved to Asheville, NC this summer where she plans to attend Community College and transfer to the University of North Carolina in Asheville, NC. Photography will be one of the career paths that she has chosen for the future. Congratulations, Madeline, for being one of the finalists in the national competition.
