OUR MOTTO: KEEP IN TOUCH

We trust that all of you have attended the church of your faith this morning before coming here.

A WONDERFUL STORY

Recently we were watching the Miss America Pageant held at Atlantic City on the night of September 12, 1964, along with millions of others, and we heard and saw a wonderful sermon. Many a good sermon is preached by all of us other than from the pulpit, and this is as it should be because the pulpit sermons are meant to prepare us to preach sermons in all of our daily words and deeds as we live our lives.

In order to reach a final decision to select the Queen, each of the five finalists were called up before the microphone by Bert Parks who asked each one a few questions.

When Vonda Kay Van Dyke, the young lady from Arizona who was crowned Queen, came to the microphone, the second question he asked her was, "I understand you always carry a Bible with you. What does religion mean to you?" Without hesitation she replied, "I do not consider my Bible a good luck charm. It is the most important book I own."

"My relations with God is not as a religion but as a faith. I believe in Him, trust in Him, and hope that even tonight His Will will be done."

It is our prayer that we all might have such a faith. Amen.

SENSE AND NON-SENSE

"Just keep cool and plug away,
Do the best you can each day.
If you are patient, you will prevail;
Work often wins where talents fail."

The teacher in an English class wrote on the board, "I ain't had no fun all summer." She turned and asked a little fellow on the front row, "Now, Harry, what can I do to correct that?" He replied, "Maybe you ought to get a boy friend."
