SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

The life that counts must always toil and fight; must always hate the wrong and love right; must stand for truth by day and night. The life that counts must be helpful to others; to care about the pain and suffering of others; to walk with others and take a part of their load.

Take responsibility on your shoulders and it will leave no room for chips.

---

Some people can keep a secret with telling effect.

---

There was a time when a fool and his money were soon parted. Now it happens to everybody.

---

When a motorcycle cop stopped a Thunderbird for speeding on a Los Angeles freeway, the driver said, "I just washed the car and had to drive fast to dry it."

---

Six prominent men were named as pallbearers in the will of a man who died penniless and owing them considerable sums. "They have been wonderful creditors," the will said, "and I would like to have them carry me to the end."
