We trust that all of you have attended the church of your faith this morning before coming here.

Now for something to think and laugh about.

"Satchel" Page a famous Negro baseball pitcher back in the twenties said "A good laugh is good for your gizzard." He also said, "As you live from day to day—never look back."

E. S. W. Dameron was a resident of Burlington for many years — He was a lawyer and Judge of the Alamance County Court for several years. He was also one of our teachers of the Men's Bible Class at Front Street United Methodist Church. One Sunday when he was teaching this class, in order to bring out a point, he said, "Every Dog has his day and every Tom Cat has his night."

A "Cop" stopped a preacher for speeding 50 miles in a 35 mile zone. He began to write out a ticket. The preacher began to beg for mercy and protested that the ticket not be given to him. He said, "Please don't give me a ticket, remember I am just a poor preacher." The "cop" kept on writing and replied — "I know, I know—I've heard you preach."

Judge Leo Carr — a resident of Burlington for many years, a lawyer and Judge of the Superior Court for many years tells this story.

Two lawyers in the Eastern part of the State got in an argument about who knew the most about the Bible.

One bet the other $5 that he could not say the Lord's Prayer. He handed over the money to a party standing nearby, and said, "Now go ahead." The other Lawyer began—"Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep."

At this point the lawyer who had put up the money held up his hand and said "Give him the money. I didn't think he knew it."
