SENSE AND NON-SENSE

It's not necessary to take a person's advice to make him feel good—all you have to do is ask it.

Speaking of ailments—don't.

Tricks of the Trade

A sign in a store window read: "Fishing Tickle." Noticing the error, a customer asked, "Hasn't anyone told you about it before?"

"Yes," replied the dealer. "Many have dropped in to tell me, and they always buy something."

The parking-lot owner called the three attendants together. "Look, boys," he said, "we haven't had one single complaint about a dented fender all week." He paused to let his words sink in. "Now tell me," he bellowed, "how can we make any money leaving that much space?"

"Drink," said the Irish preacher, "is the greatest curse of the country. It makes yer quarrel with yer neighbors. It makes yer shoot at yer landlord; and it makes yer miss him."

Archie and Finnegan were discussing kissing:

Archie: "Ain't it unsanitary?"

Finnegan: "Maybe it is. But I can't think of a nicer way to meet a germ."

Try praising your wife, even if it does frighten her at first.

Do not pass a temptation lightly by; it may never come again.

The best way of answering a bad argument is just to let it go on.

No man has a good enough memory to make a successful liar.
