HOW TO GIVE

Give as you would if an angel
Awaited your gift at the door.
Give as you would if tomorrow
Found you where giving is o'er.

Give as you would to the Master
If you met His loving look.
Give as you would of your substance
If His hand the offering took.

REST

Are you weary? Rest a little bit.
In some quiet corner, fold your hands and sit.
Do not let the trials that have grieved you all the day
Haunt this quiet corner; drive them all away!
Let your heart grow empty of every thought unkind
That peace may hover round you, and joy may fill your mind.
Count up all your blessings, I'm sure they are not few,
That the dear Lord daily just bestows on you.
Soon you'll feel so rested, glad you stopped a bit,
In this quiet corner, to fold your hands and sit.

A SMILE COSTS NOTHING

A smile costs nothing but gives much —
It takes but a moment but the memory of it usually lasts forever.
None are so rich that they can get along without it —
And none are so poor but that can be made rich by it.
It enriches those who receive
Without making poor those who give —
It creates sunshine in the home,
Fosters good will in business
And is the best antidote for trouble —
And yet it cannot be begged, borrowed or stolen, for it is of no value
Unless it is freely given away.
Some people are too busy to give you a smile —
Give them one of yours —
For the good Lord knows that no one needs a smile so badly
As he or she who has no more smiles to give.
