AND OTHERS

MOLDING LIFE

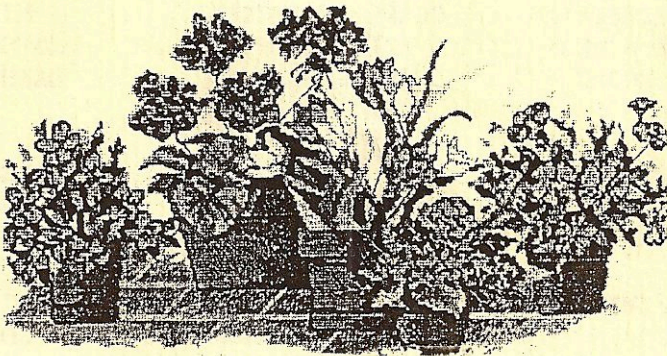

I took a piece of plastic clay
And idly fashioned it one day;
And, as my fingers pressed it still,
It moved, and yielded to my will.

I came again when the days were past;
The bit of clay was hard at last;
The form I gave it still it bore,
But I could change that form no more.

I took a piece of living clay,
And gently formed it day by day,
and molded with my power and art
A young child's soft and yielding heart.

I came again when the years were gone,
It was a man I looked upon;
He still that early impress wore
And I could change him nevermore.
